Bound Brook Memorial Library branch

Volume III

Mary C. Nelson is an Adult Services/Local History Librarian at SCLSNJ's Bound Brook Memorial Library branch. A lifelong central New Jersey resident, she has a B.A. from Douglass College and a M.L.S. from Rutgers University. She has spent thirty-three years working in public, academic and special libraries as a professional librarian.

Partial funding for printing the initial fifteen copies of this reference work has been provided through Boy Scouts of America®.

Cover and title page artwork were created from an image of a "soul effigy" from the gravestone of Mrs. Mary Read, who died in 1770. She was the wife of the late 18th century minister of the Bound Brook Presbyterian Church, Rev. Israel Read.

Military Rank:	Military Service:
Notes: Birth Date determined by using the 8870 Formula, a mathematical calculation based on the Death Date and Age at death given in years, months and days. This decedent could possibly have been the Revolutionary War veteran who served from Somerset County as a private in Capt. Jacob Ten Eyck's Company, 1 st Regiment, but there is no proof. His was one of the stones that the Camp Middlebrook Chapter, DAR decorated with a bronze marker on Constitution Day, Sept. 17, 1898. It was one of only two left in the graveyard when Powelson did her recording in 1927.

This stone is erected to the memory of Sarah wife of Henry LaTourette who died Janu<sup>y</sup>.
14th 1806 aged 86
years

Our term of time is seventy years
An age that few survive
But if with more than common strength
To eighty we arrive
Yet then out boasted strength decays
To sorrow turn'd and pain
So soon the tender thread is cut
And we no more remain

Notes: Stonecutter, Joseph Sillcock is listed without the ending s that later appeared in the family surname, Sillcocks. This is because his name appears sans s on his only known signed headstone and in the advertisement found in the Guardian or New Brunswick Advertiser, June 30, 1803. The s in "Sillcocks" seems to appear with every other family member, but not Joseph, who may have been the founder of the family's stonecutting business. Cemetery records and the gravestone itself show this decedent's middle name spelled "Boyard," which is probably a transcription error. His middle name was more likely "Bayard," named after Revolutionary War veteran, Col. Stephen Bayard, who fought in the skirmishing at Bound Brook. The Stephen Bayard Masonic Lodge #526, south of Pittsburgh, PA, is named after him. This information provided by Laurence Overmire in his book, A Revolutionary American Family, the McDonalds of Somerset County, New Jersey: A Genealogical and Biographical Record of Col. William McDonald, Maj. Richard McDonald and Col. George McDonald, Esq., their Ancestors and Descendants, published in 2015, p.382.

Notes: Stonecutter, Joseph Sillcock is listed without the ending s that later appeared in the family surname, Sillcocks. This is because his name appears sans s on his only known signed headstone and in the advertisement found in the Guardian or New Brunswick Advertiser , June 30, 1803. The s in "Sillcocks" seems to appear with every other family member, but not Joseph, who may have been the founder of the family's stonecutting business.
