Such termination shall relieve the SCLC of any obligation for the balances to the Respondent of any sum or sums set forth in the Contract.

The Respondent agrees to indemnify and hold the SCLC harmless from any liability to subcontractors/suppliers concerning payment for work performed or goods supplied arising out of the lawful termination of the Contract by the SCLC under this provision.

In case of default by the Respondent, the SCLC may procure the articles or services from other sources and hold the Respondent responsible for any excess cost occasioned thereby.

2.14. Non-Allocation of Funding Termination

Each fiscal year payment obligation of the SCLC is conditioned upon SCLC funds appropriated or allocated for the payment of such obligation. If funds are not allocated and available for the continuance of any services performed by the Respondent hereunder, whether in whole or in part, the SCLC at the end of any fiscal year may terminate such services. The SCLC will notify the Respondent in writing immediately of any services that will be affected by a shortage of appropriated funds. This provision shall not be construed so as to permit the SCLC to terminate this agreement during the term, or any service hereunder, merely to acquire identical services from another party.

2.15. Force Majeure

Neither party shall be responsible for any resulting loss or obligation to fulfill duties as specified in the terms or provisions of this agreement if the fulfillment of any term or provision of this agreement is delayed or prevented by any revolutions, insurrections, riots, wars, acts of enemies, national emergencies, strikes, floods, fires, acts of God, or by any cause not within the control of the party whose performance is interfered with which by the exercise of reasonable diligence such party is unable to prevent. Additionally, if the fulfillment of any of the terms and provisions of this agreement is delayed or prevented by any court order, or action or injunction or other such agreement, this agreement shall become voidable by the SCLC by notice to each party.

2.16. The SCLC and the Respondent each bind themselves and their successors, executors, administrators, heirs and assigns and legal representatives of the other party respecting all covenants and agreements and obligations of this contract.

2.17. The terms of this agreement shall be construed and interpreted, and all respective rights and duties of the parties shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey.

2.18. Challenge of Specifications

Any Respondent who wishes to challenge a specification shall file such challenge in writing with the Somerset County Library System Finance Director no less than three (3) business days prior to the opening of the RFP's. None of the documents and/or property shall, without the written consent of the SCLC, be disclosed to others or used by the Respondent or permitted by the Respondent to be used by their parties at any time except in the performance of the resulting contract.
