The SOMERSET COUNTY LIBRARY COMMISSION is seeking qualified service provider(s) to assist with development of a new iteration of SCLSNJ.org. This contract is to provide design and development services that will deliver a refreshed website, built on a flexible and customizable content management platform.

SCLSNJ.org provides information about the Somerset County Library System of New Jersey's (SCLSNJ) eleven branches and in-person services, and functions as the gateway for a variety of third-party virtual services, including, but not limited to:

- Customer access to the web-based library catalog for finding materials and managing library accounts
- A wide variety of subscription databases for research and reference
- Overdrive, the Library's platform for downloadable ebooks and eaudiobooks
- The SCLSNJ public event calendar (includes room reservation software)
- A mobile app

The project is expected to be substantially complete by July 1, 2024.

1. Background

The Somerset County Library System of New Jersey (SCLSNJ, or "the Library") is an publicly-funded library system of eleven branches, serving a diverse suburban population of around 200,000 in central New Jersey. SCLSNJ is governed by the Somerset County Library Commission (SCLC, or "the Commission"). The Library's web presence is executed through a number of channels, including a variety of social media platforms (managed by the Marketing Department) and the library website, sclsnj.org.

Our current website was last updated in 2017/2018. Technology has advanced in the resulting years and it's now time for a refresh.

Our system is inflexible with editing or creating new page templates. Issues updating or editing header, footer, and menu elements, integration of video content is lacking. Backend administration permissions are not tiered or customizable, which makes it difficult to separate content creation from publication. We have concerns with responsive design, accessibility and how our site appears on tablets and cell phones. Ongoing maintenance is inconsistent, which causes security concerns.

1.2. Current Technical Approach and Capacity

When it comes to making technology decisions, SCLSNJ is guided by the following principles:

Functional access to underlying data. Whenever possible, we look for products and services that expose underlying system data for reuse and integration via APIs, webhooks, and other tools. When we have an idea for connecting two systems or automating a process, we want to do our own tinkering and exploration. For that reason, direct integration via APIs/Web services are required. Even if a tool is built into the website, we want to be able to use data in other places (e.g. adding upcoming event suggestions when auto-replying to customers who give us program ideas).

Work farther up the stack. For the Library, this means putting our time and effort as close as possible to our users, whether staff members or library customers. We would rather focus on UX and integration than on servers or device management.

Compromise on details, not strategy. We have some atypical approaches in place – like using our Google Workspace domain as our primary identity and permissions infrastructure. There may be turnkey solutions that meet our needs in terms of features, but we aren't interested if they require Active Directory, for instance, or don't offer open access to data. Using Google Workspace presently does not have an implication for the website. However, if we are able to use Google or OAuth in some way, that would save us from duplicating user accounts and security grouping and permissions.

We serve everybody. Providing information and technology resources in a public library environment always means working with the long tail. Our mission requires us to maintain as much backward compatibility as possible. As a public library, we explicitly serve the long tail of technology adoption. Our website needs to be accessible on a wide range of devices, operating systems, and browsers that go farther back than many private organizations would be concerned with. We know that the cost of maintaining backward compatibility increases the farther back you go and are open to conversations about what is practical, but we are committed to serving as much of our community as possible, including via our website.

2. Scope of Work

2.1. Project Goals

SCLSNJ's Website Redesign Project has four goals:

1. Focus on the primary site users – Library customers – and improve usability for common tasks
2. Update SCLSNJ website look and feel to be consistent with current visual identity guidelines
3. Add functionality for granular distributed management of site content
4. Ensure the site is widely usable by adhering to industry standards for accessibility and responsiveness

We do not have specific OKRs for the website redesign. Broadly, we would like to improve customer experience overall and reduce or eliminate as many pain points as we can when it comes to navigating our wide array of services and third-party products. Anecdotally, we can tell we're getting it right when we get fewer questions from customers about how to use tools and services, and although we don't currently track metrics around question content, it's an informal way to measure CX success. We also have competing priorities and audiences for the website. We know that the vast majority of traffic on our site is for finding materials in the catalog, checking on hours and locations, managing library account info, and browsing and registering for events, so we want to make those functions as seamless as possible. At the same time, we have a range of niche services or curated resources that are for relatively narrow audiences – we want those customers to find what they need, too, but not at the expense of accomplishing basic tasks.

Some examples of ideas for future development:

- Assign content creation and maintenance to a wide array of subject matter experts across our library system. Ideally, an individual staff member could have access to their assigned content or pages, but not other areas, to avoid accidental edits or unauthorized creation. We do this now in some ways, but without granular permissions around content, it gets to be a mess, and cleaning it up is not a good use of our technology team's time.
- Fully integrate the library's catalog with databases and events. Search of the current library catalog is strong and relatively intuitive as library discovery products go, but it is a silo. We know people find the materials they're looking for in the catalog based on the rate of holds or reserves that they place, but unless they know to go other places for event information or to see what licensed database content we might have, they won't see that related content.

- Scheduling content changes and updates. Our marketing team has a very organized process for scheduling and planning updates to the library website, but the actual updates happen in real time. Similarly, when we know we are going to make a policy or procedure change and want the website to reflect that, we can't set up the change in advance – we have to schedule someone to make the change at the appropriate time.

The project is expected to be substantially complete by July 1, 2024.

2.2. Areas of Responsibility

The project will be divided into three major components:

- Developing the back-end content management system (CMS)
- Establishing visual and graphic design specifications
- Re-organizing site content

Work will proceed simultaneously on all three components, with occasional coordinating meetings to keep work on track.

2.2.1. Content Management System

The successful Respondent will be responsible for recommending, developing and implementing a content management system for the site. SCLSNJ staff have the knowledge and skill to learn a CMS from scratch, but their time is already over-committed. The goal is to outsource the initial development and roll-out to a firm with this as an area of expertise, and then to bring ongoing maintenance and further development in-house.

2.2.2. Graphic Design

The look and feel of the site, including all graphic design and visual identity decisions, will be determined by the SCLSNJ Marketing Department.

SCLSNJ has a brand style guide that can be shared with the successful vendor and it outlines colors, fonts, tone of voice, etc. The guidelines are slightly different than what can be seen on our website because of our current inability to make changes to the core layout (headers, drop down menus, etc.).

2.2.3. Site Content

A small team of library staff will review existing usability research, and will develop a plan for organizing and presenting site content in a way that best meets the needs of the public.

2.2.4 Integrations

Where applicable, please include proposals for the following website integrations:

- Calendars, room reservations, programs
- Mobile app

3. Technical Requirements

3.1. Core Technology

The content management system (CMS) will be built on an existing platform with wide adoption. Open source platforms as well as proprietary platforms will be considered as long as the Respondent can demonstrate that the ability to develop added functionality or integrations locally is also supported.

We have a very small but very creative and fearless team who routinely find novel solutions to integration problems. Examples include:

- A widget to pull upcoming staff training events out of Communico – marked private and not viewable in the public calendar – and display it on our employee intranet (Google Sites).
- A custom script that runs on the 1st and 15th of each month to query the database that drives our library catalog, pull out recently added titles with new items, and update the content on our "New and Coming Soon" page (<https://sclsnj.org/read-listen-view/new-coming-soon/>).

Please indicate with your proposal if access to create custom widgets or code is available, and if not, the course of action for development and creation of customized widgets and/or code.

3.2. Basic Functionality

The CMS should support functionality that includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Content editing must be available via an intuitive, web-based WYSIWYG editor, with the ability to directly edit content code as well.
- Levels of permissions must allow site administrators, supervisors, and staff to contribute to and edit the site's content. Settings should be granular by user, page and level of permission.
- The CMS must track changes to page content and metadata by date and time, and by individual user, with the option for users to subscribe to change notification emails. Users must have the ability to revert to a previous version of page content.
- The site must be natively responsive and be compatible with all major browsers. Design should include accommodation for legacy, non-standards-compliant browsers whenever possible.
- The site will be developed to meet all Federally-mandated accessibility requirements adopted by the Federal Access Board under section 508 subsection

1194.22 of the Rehabilitation Act, and in accordance with W3C Web Content Accessibility Guidelines version 2.1 (as is anticipated to be required for local government websites via a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking for Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act in April 2023).

- Site design must meet the highest and most current security guidelines as defined by the W3C.
- No logo or other advertisement for the consultant or any third party not authorized by Library staff will be permitted on the site.
- The primary entry point for users will be a search box providing access to the Library's online catalog and other resources. The specific search target(s) will be determined by Library staff; some can be accessed using APIs provided by existing partners, but some may require the development of custom interface elements.
- Other key user interactions are:
 - Branch locator, including search by current location, mapping and directions. (This may potentially be integrated with SCLSNJ's Google My Business listings.)
 - Searchable and filterable event calendar for library programs and events. (The Library currently contracts with a third-party to provide an event calendar product. We are open to other options, but they must include attendee self-registration for events, and a means of managing use of program and event spaces.)
 - Prime visual space for promoting services, collections and programs.
 - Integration with SCLSNJ's social media activities—Currently this primarily includes Facebook and X (formerly known as Twitter), but we need to be able to incorporate other tools as they arise.
 - Integration with information resources to which the Library subscribes but that are not easily accessible through the library catalog (such as Naxos).
 - Access to library account information to renew books, pay fines, review reserved items, etc. (ILS: Carl.Solution)
 - Integration with PCI-compliant ecommerce platform for processing fine payments, donations, etc.
- The site should integrate fully with Google Analytics, enabling the Library to track traffic, browsing paths, visitor trends, individual page views, entry pages, top pages, exit pages, page and site length of stay, and analysis of browsers and platforms.

Additional desired functionality includes:

- Easy integration with the Library's domain-level Google Drive accounts to function as a document server

3.3. Site Administration

The current site is wholly administered by SCLSNJ staff, with hosting provided by a third-party. SCLSNJ is prepared to continue managing this model for site administration.

The Library is also open to managed hosting solutions, and will evaluate the cost of annual contracts for service against the up-front costs of self-hosted products, taking into consideration the ease of management and the ability of Library staff members to develop additional functions.

3.4 Technical Specifications

- e-Commerce functionality such as payment gateways
- SSL
- Multilingual capabilities - From a UX standpoint, providing translation for website content (especially in Spanish, but in other languages as well) is a high priority. When we last redesigned our website in 2017, the cost of providing translation on demand was outside of our budget, but we are hoping a more cost-effective solution has been developed in the meantime.
- User roles and capabilities – multiple user roles with page specific permission
- Analytics and tracking
- Specific functionality around search - We are very happy with the search functionality in our library catalog. We would be open to other federated searching options that work across content silos and might include the website, but this is not a requirement for this project.
- Performance requirements
- Browser optimization (Chrome, Firefox, Safari, Edge)
- Cloud hosting
- Search engine optimization
- Accessible/ADA compliant
- Integration with calendaring software, social media, mobile app (preferably within one system or with third parties) (also see 3.5)
- Updates to plug-ins, ongoing maintenance and security

3.5 Add-on Services:

1. Calendar/Event and Room Reservations

Patrons visit our website in order to register for programs and events. The calendar integration would be expected to be user friendly, allowing patrons to register for an event or book a room. Additionally, patrons should be able to add the registration to their calendar (ical, google, etc.), staff would have the option to send event reminders, and patrons can cancel if necessary. Ideally, calendar event information can be presented outside the calendar interface for marketing (e.g. during catalog searches). The calendar integration would be fully responsive on all device sizes and seamlessly integrated and offering full functionality in our web app.

Currently there are approximately 28-30 rooms across 10 branches that are available for booking. Approximately 18 of those rooms are available to patrons to book directly. The remainder can be booked by SCLS staff only. We have rooms where, for example, there is an A, B, and C room available. The option to choose A and B, B and C, or ABC is available and similar types of room arrangements should be considered in the proposal.

If the Respondent has specific experience with a third party vendor, please describe that experience in detail.

2. Mobile application

Please describe in detail, how development of a mobile application would be part of this project. If the Respondent has specific experience with a third party application vendors, please describe that experience in detail.

5. Response Evaluation

Evaluation
Governing Body Action

late January 2024
February 4, 2024

5.1. Evaluation Process

An evaluation team will review all proposals. The team will determine if the proposals satisfy the Proposal Requirements, determine if a proposal should be rejected and then evaluate the proposals based upon the Evaluation Criteria. The highest-ranking Respondent will then be recommended to the governing body for award of contract, based on price and other factors. In certain areas, multiple contracts may be awarded.

5.2. Evaluation Criteria

Listed below are the criteria that the SCLC will consider in the evaluation of each proposal. The arrangement of the criteria does not imply order of importance in the selection process. All criteria will be used to select the successful Respondent.

5.2.1. Understanding of the Requested Work

Proposals will be evaluated for general compliance with instructions and requests issued in the RFP. Non-compliance with significant instructions shall be grounds for disqualification of proposals.

5.2.2. Knowledge and Technical Competence

The ability of the Respondent to perform all of the tasks and fulfill the stated requirements will be evaluated based on information in the proposal, including a proposed website development plan that addresses all of the technical specifications (3.4)

5.2.3. Management, Experience and Personnel Qualifications

Expertise of the firm shall be demonstrated by past contract successes providing government agencies with similar services by the:

1. Provision of references that adequately demonstrate experience with the services proposed (4.5)
2. Demonstration of company expertise, including the qualifications of key personnel (4.3 and 4.4)

5.2.4. Ability to Complete the Project/ Services in a Timely Manner

Proposals will be evaluated to determine the ability of the Respondent to perform the work within the timeframe specified. (3.3)

5.2.5. Flexibility for Future Development

The proposed solution will be evaluated to determine how readily it affords the Library the flexibility to actively develop additional site functionality in the future without additional development costs.

5.2.6. Cost

Cost is a key evaluation factor. The Library will evaluate the cost of annual contracts for hosting and other services against the flat up-front costs of locally hosted solutions, taking into consideration the ease of management and the ability of Library staff members to develop additional functions.

We are hoping to fix as many UX problems as possible with this redesign, and we know that there are budgetary tradeoffs to be made between using professional services and thoughtfully-designed products, and having in-house staff to adapt and customize for future needs. We are also open to proposals that have a proportionally large year 1 cost for design and implementation with lower hosting costs, as well as those which approach the project from an ongoing platform-as-service perspective. For these reasons, we do not have a specific budget earmarked. With that said, we are using NJ public procurement's competitive contracting process, which means that we may exceed SCLSNJ's $44,000 bid threshold for this project; however the three-year cost should not exceed $100,000.

Please quote for the following services:

1. Website redesign (only)
2. Ongoing annual website hosting and maintenance, or annual platform subscription

Respondents may additionally quote the following optional services:

1. Mobile application (if the respondent has experience working with third party vendors, please specify)
2. Calendaring/Event Organization for Public Libraries (if the respondent has experience working with third party vendors, please specify)

6. Administrative Conditions and Requirements

The following items express the administrative conditions and requirements of this RFP. Together with the other RFP sections, they will apply to the RFP process, the subsequent contract, and the provision of materials and services. Any proposed change, modification, or exception to these conditions and requirements may be the basis for the SOMERSET COUNTY LIBRARY COMMISSION, hereinafter referred to as SCLC, to determine the proposal non-responsive to the RFP, and will be a factor in the determination of an award of contract. The contents of the proposal of the successful Respondent, as accepted by the SCLC, will become part of any contract awarded as a result of this RFP.

6.1. Interpretations and Addenda

Respondents are expected to examine the RFP with care and observe all its requirements. All questions about the meaning or intent of this RFP and all interpretations and clarifications considered necessary by the SCLC representative in response to such comments and questions will be issued by Addenda posted to <https://sclsnj.org/rfps/> under Active Bids. Only comments and questions responded to by formal written Addenda will be binding. Oral interpretations, statements or clarifications are without legal effect.

6.2. Estimates of Quantities

Wherever the estimated quantities of work to be done are shown in any section of this RFP, including the Proposal Cost Form, they are given for use in comparing proposals. The SCLC especially reserves the right (except as herein otherwise specifically limited) to increase or diminish the quantities as may be deemed reasonably necessary or desirable by the SCLC to complete the work detailed by the contract. Such increase or diminution shall in no way violate this contract, nor shall any such increase or diminution give cause for claims or liability for damages.

6.3. Cost Liability and Additional Costs

The SCLC assumes no responsibility or liability for costs incurred by the Respondent prior to the issuance of an agreement. The liability of the SCLC shall be limited to the terms and conditions of the contract.

Respondents will assume responsibility for all costs not stated in their proposals. All unit rates either stated in the proposal or used as a basis for its pricing are required to be all-inclusive. Additional charges, unless incurred for additional work performed by request of the SCLC, are not to be billed and will not be paid.

6.4. Statutory and Other Requirements

6.4.1. Compliance with Laws

Any contract entered into between the contractor and the SCLC must be in accordance with, and subject to, compliance by both parties with the New Jersey Local Public Contracts Law. The contractor must agree to comply with the non-discrimination provisions of that law and all other laws and regulations applicable to the performance of services there under. The Respondent shall sign and acknowledge such forms and certificates as may be required by this section.

6.4.2. Mandatory Affirmative Action Compliance

No firm may be issued a contract unless it complies with the Affirmative Action regulations of P. L. 1975, C. 127 as identified in the documents attached hereto. The form shall be properly executed in order for SCLC to determine compliance.

6.4.3. New Jersey Anti-Discrimination – N.J.S.A. 10:2-1

There shall be no discrimination against any employee engaged in the work required to produce the goods and services covered by any contract resulting from this bid, or against any applicant to such employment because of race, religion, sex, national origin, creed, color, ancestry, age, marital status, affectional or sexual orientation, familial status, liability for service in the Armed Forces of the United States, or nationality. This provision shall include, but not be limited to the following: employment upgrading, demotion, transfer, recruitment or recruitment advertising, layoff or termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation, and selection for training, including apprenticeship. The contractor shall insert a similar provision in all subcontracts for services to be covered by any contract resulting from this RFP.

6.4.4. Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990

Discrimination on the basis of disability in contracting for the delivery of services is prohibited. Respondents are required to read the American with Disabilities language that is part of the documents attached hereto and agree that the provisions of Title II of the Act are made part of the contract. The contractor is obligated to comply with the Act and hold the SCLC harmless.

6.4.5. Statement of Ownership Disclosure

No corporation or partnership shall be awarded any contract for the performance of any work or the furnishing of any goods, unless, with receipt of the proposal of said corporation or partnership, there is submitted a statement setting forth the names and addresses of all stockholders in the corporation or partnership who own ten (10) percent or greater interest therein. The Respondent shall complete and submit the certification form that is included in this RFP.

6.4.6. Non-Collusion Affidavit

The Non-Collusion Affidavit, which is part of this RFP, shall be properly executed and submitted with the RFP response.

6.4.7. N.J. Business Registration Certificate

A N.J. Business Registration Certificate is required prior to award of contract, pursuant to C57, PL2004; failure to be registered by time of contract award may be cause for rejection. Entities or individuals that need to file for a certificate may do so on-line through the NJ Division of Local Government Services at the following link:

<http://www.state.nj.us/treasury/revenue/busregcert.shtml>

6.4.8. Disclosure of Investment Activities in Iran

P.L. 2012, c.25 prohibits State and local public contracts with persons or entities engaging in certain investment activities in energy or finance sectors of Iran.

6.4.9. Insurance and Indemnification

If it becomes necessary for the contractor, either as principal or by agent or employee, to enter upon the premises or property of the SCLC in order to construct, erect, inspect, make delivery or remove property hereunder, the contractor hereby covenants and agrees to take, use, provide and make all proper, necessary and sufficient precautions, safeguards, and protection against the occurrence of happenings of any accident, injuries, damages, or hurt to person or property during the course of the work herein covered and his/her sole responsibility.

The contractor further covenants and agrees to indemnify and save harmless the SCLC from the payment of all sums of money or any other consideration(s) by reason of any, or all, such accidents, injuries, damages, or hurt that may happen or occur upon or about such work and all fines, penalties and loss incurred for or by reason of the violation of any SCLC regulation, ordinance or the laws of the State, or the United States while said work is in progress.

The contractor shall maintain sufficient insurance to protect against all claims under Workers Compensation, General Liability and Automobile and shall be subject to approval for adequacy of protection and shall provide such certificates of insurance when requested.

6.5. Multiple Proposals Not Accepted

More than one separate proposal from an individual, firm, partnership, corporation or association under the same or different names shall not be considered. However, vendors may respond to more than one service or alternate, but must list each service or alternate separately on the proposal cost form and must state their relevant qualifications for each service or alternate.

6.6. Partial Award

The Library reserves the right to award contracts for all or part of the services.

6.7. Failure to Enter Contract

Should the Respondent to whom the contract is awarded fail to enter into a contract within ten (10) days, Sundays and holidays excepted, the SCLC may then, at its option, accept the proposal of another Respondent.

6.8. Commencement of Work

The contractor agrees to commence work after the date of award by the SCLC and upon notice from the using department.

6.9. Termination of Contract

If, through any cause, the contractor shall fail to fulfill in a timely and proper manner its obligations under the Contract, or if the contractor violates any requirements of the Contract, the SCLC shall thereupon have the right to terminate the Contract by giving written notice to the contractor of such termination at least thirty (30) days prior to the proposed effective date of the termination. Such termination shall relieve the SCLC of any obligation for the balances to the contractor of any sum or sums set forth in the Contract.

The contractor agrees to indemnify and hold the SCLC harmless from any liability to subcontractors/suppliers concerning payment for work performed or goods supplied arising out of the lawful termination of the Contract by the SCLC under this provision.

In case of default by the contractor, the SCLC may procure the articles or services from other sources and hold the contractor responsible for any excess cost occasioned thereby.

6.10. Challenge of Specifications

Any Respondent who wishes to challenge a specification shall file such challenge in writing with the Somerset County Library System Finance Director no less than three (3) business days prior to the opening of the RFP's. Challenges filed after that time shall be considered void and will have no impact on the SCLC or the award of contract.

6.11. Payment

The SCLC issues checks once a month on the first Wednesday of each month, excluding holidays. A purchase order/voucher with the vendor's signature must be attached to all invoices and be in the ordering department's possession roughly two weeks prior to the first Wednesday of the following month in order for a check to be ready on that date.

The SCLC will not pay interest or late fees.

6.12. Ownership of Material

The SCLC shall retain all of its rights and interest in any and all documents and property, both hard copy and digital, furnished by the SCLC to the contractor for the purpose of assisting the contractor in the performance of this contract. All such items shall be returned immediately to the SCLC at the expiration or termination of the contract or completion of any related services, pursuant thereto, whichever comes first. None of the documents and/or property shall, without the written consent of the SCLC, be disclosed to others or used by the contractor or permitted by the contractor to be used by their parties at any time except in the performance of the resulting contract.

Ownership of all data, materials and documentation originated and prepared for the SCLC pursuant to this contract shall belong exclusively to the SCLC. All data, reports, computerized information, programs and materials related to this project shall be delivered to and become the property of the SCLC upon completion of the project. The contractor shall not have the right to use, sell, or disclose the total of the interim or final work products, or make available to third parties, without the prior written consent of the SCLC. All information supplied to the SCLC may be required to be supplied on storage media compatible with standard operating systems and file formats.

6.13. Proposals to Remain Subject to Acceptance

RFP responses shall remain open for a period of sixty (60) calendar days from the stated submittal date. The SCLC will either award the Contract within the applicable time period or reject all proposals.

The SCLC may extend the decision to award or reject all proposals beyond the sixty (60) calendar days and the proposals of any Respondents who consent thereto may, at the request of the SCLC, be held for consideration for such longer period as may be agreed upon.

6.14. Rejection of Proposals

The SCLC reserves the right to reject any or all proposals, or to reject any proposals if the evidence submitted by, or investigation of such evidence fails to satisfy the SCLC that such Respondent is properly qualified to carry out the obligations of the RFP and to complete the work contemplated therein. The SCLC reserves the right to waive any minor informality in the RFP.

6.15. Notice of Award

The successful Respondent will be notified of the award of contract upon a favorable decision by the governing body. The SCLC Finance Director may then send a Purchase Order/Voucher to the contractor.

Contracts for award of “fair and open” procurements for professional services and extraordinary unspecifiable services (EUS) will be prepared by the SCLC.

Term of the contract: One year with two options to renew for two additional one year terms, for a potential total of three years.

6.16. Payment

Payment will be made on presentation of the SCLC’s voucher duly signed and executed and in accordance with the payment timetable established by the SCLC.
